Digest solar oil

“In Man, the belly which is below, corresponds to what is above in Divinity... This is why the Creator is placed in the belly.”

O.M. Aïvanhov.

To massage your abdomen is a healthy and necessary act, accessible to everyone, which allows you to regain contact with yourself and to stimulate the body's power of self-healing.

The obstructions and congestions of the abdomen arise at the heart of the body's vital functions and impede the free circulation of energy.

It is therefore important to have good alimentary and emotional digestion. Negative emotions such as fear, anxiety, depression, create stases at the level of the abdomen. These can be accentuated by stress and poor eating-patterns.

Negative emotions, toxic energies and alimentary toxins have to be eliminated under pain of creating a cycle of negativity and perpetual stress.

The centre of the navel is a threshold between the physical body and energizing bodies. It is highly important for this centre to remain free.

Abdominal massage permits the liberation of this threshold and puts back the toxins into circulation in the digestive circuit.

“Huile Consolatrice Digest” has been specially formulated to accompany this massage and to unblock the abdominal zone, especially through its powerful action of regulating the sympathetic nervous system.

The abdominal zone may be assimilated to the forge of our body, called the Hara, where the “heavy” energies are transmuted into finer energies, which nourish our subtle energizing bodies .

Our Hara is an alchemical zone, where “Light comes out of the darkness”, and it is there, through the transmutation of our energies, that our Christic dimension can grow. To practise the Anointing of this region with “Huile Consolatrice Digest” allows the awakening of the alchemical “Fire” in all the organs of digestion. (Action on the “Triple Heater”.)

A digestive tonic, an anti-spasmodic and abdominal antalgic, “Huile Consolatrice Digest” acts on constipation, meteorism and painful periods. It eliminates abdominal stases due to emotional stress or surplus.
